

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Now Shipping AmpliTube™ Live + LE
Windows® and MacOS® X Amp Simulation
for everyone!

October 2004, Modena, Italy - AES 117th Convention. IK Multimedia is proud to announce the shipping of the new AmpliTube™ Live as a stand alone application for Windows® XP as well as MacOS® X. Plus, as a huge extra value, each AmpliTube™ Live box includes now the AmpliTube™ LE plug-in for every format (VST, Audio Unit, DX and RTAS)! AmpliTube™ Live users can now get a taste of the power of the AmpliTube™ plug-in FREE with AmpliTube™ LE!

AmpliTube™ Live with AmpliTube™ LE plug-in together represent the best sounding solution for amp sound simulation for your computer. From live usage to integration with your preferred sequencers (including Cubase™, Protools®, Logic™, Sonar™, Digital Performer™, Garage Band and more...) this killer package for guitarist is the most complete and most affordable solution for entering into the world of software amp-simulation.

AmpliTube™ Live and LE includes selections from one of the most highly acclaimed guitar amp and effects modeling software, celebrated by the world's leading guitar and recording magazines. AmpliTube™ Live and LE make it easy to create a vast array of powerful amp sounds on the road without a heavy amp set up. From lush, warm vintage tones to cutting-edge sonic dynamos, AmpliTube™ Live and LE put the power of a half stack on your desktop.

Here is what AmpliTube™ Live and LE can do for your guitar sounds:

A massive amp set-up in your computer

Combine 3 different Pre-Amp models and related EQs with 3 accurately emulated cabinets to precisely craft a wide palette of guitar sounds ranging from clean, to crunch, to lead.

On-board Effects

A set of 4 classic effects is included, together with a spacious Spring Reverb and 3 stomp-like effects including Wah-Wah, Delay and Overdrive, all modeled on acclaimed classic guitar effects.

Built-in Tuner

AmpliTube™ Live and LE are a complete solution for guitarists. In addition to a host of amp selections and effects, there's also a chromatic tuner, which makes it easy for players to stay in tune under any conditions.

Play live with the same feel as an actual amp

AmpliTube™ Live and LE play without any perceivable latency. This means that even the most sophisticated guitarist will feel just like there's a hard-wired amp at the other end of their cord. And it's extremely easy to use with no-need for special hardware or software (works with built-in Windows® and Macintosh® audio cards) and no special set-up or configuration. Plus its multiple, made-in-Italy, boutique skins give you the right inspiration for every song.
